‘Conversations with the Commissioners’ 2018 Series Dates Announced

Norristown, PA (April 5, 2018) – For the sixth year in a row, the Montgomery County Commissioners are taking their message on the road. Constituents are encouraged to attend a “Conversations with the Commissioners” event to discuss the issues important in their communities. The 2018 series of conversations will be held in Pottstown, Pennsburg, Bryn Mawr, and Abington.

Since they began in 2013, the “Conversations” have been well-attended and have given county residents the opportunity to discuss a wide range of subjects with the commissioners.

“Our county is large and diverse, so we have these conversations to meet our residents face to face and find out what issues are impacting our residents in their neighborhoods,” said Dr. Val Arkoosh, Chair, Montgomery County Commissioners. “It helps us better understand how to serve the residents in every corner of the county.”

“The Conversations with the Commissioners helps us get feedback from residents on the aspects of county government that matter most to them, and creates an opportunity for us to directly share information about many county services and projects that residents may not know about,” said Ken Lawrence, Jr., Vice Chair.

“As public officials we always look forward to hearing the comments and concerns of our constituents. This feedback gives us a better understanding of issues impacting communities throughout Montgomery County,” said Commissioner Joe Gale.
